16th Annual Eat to the Beat

The 16th annual Eat to the Beat featured sixty of Canada's top female chefs including Anne Yarymowich, Frank, Art Gallery of Ontario; Ivana Raca, McEwan; and Donna Doher, Mildred's Temple Kitchen. Guests savoured a cornucopia of sweet and savoury foods, wines and premium beers as they wandered the music-filled corridors of Roy Thomson Hall. The focus of this year's culinary fundraiser was on locally grown, sustainable, seasonal foods. The evening also included a silent auction and raffle for prizes including a trip to the Dominican Republic, donated by Air Canada Vacations and The Grand Bahia Principe Esmeralda. Of course, eat to the Beat would not be complete without the traditional food-inspired corsets. These corsets were created by Canadian designers, some of who have been affected by breast cancer.
