

32nd Genie Award nominations include Hollywood A-listers

Lynn Fenske, Toronto Film Examiner

January 17, 2012 - Like this? Subscribe to get instant updates.

Add a comment

It may be a dreary, rainy day in Toronto but there are bright lights shining on Canadian movies. During a morning press conference at the Rosewater Supper Club the Academy of Canadian Cinema & Television announced nominations for the 32nd Annual Genie Awards recognizing exceptional achievements in Canadian film.

ACCT Interim CEO Helga Stephenson and actor Kevin Durand presented the list of nominees that included Michael Fassbender (A Dangerous Method), Michelle Williams (Take This Waltz), Viggo Mortensen (A Dangerous Method), Vanessa Paradis (Café de Flore) and Rachel Weisz (The Whistleblower).

The complete list of nominees is available at the Genie Awards website.

The 32nd Annual Genie Awards will be broadcast live from the Westin Harbour Castle in Toronto on March 8, 2012 on the CBC network.

On March 7 the Academy of Canadian Cinema & Television presents the Genie32 film nominees at TIFF Bell Lightbox as part of the ongoing In Conversation With ... series. Visit TIFF for details.

Advertisement

Are Your Savings Safe?
 CDIC Protects Most But Not All Savings. Find Out More!
www.cdic.ca

AdChoices

Congratulations to all the Genie Award nominees.