New Casa Loma escape game might be Toronto's best

By Michael Blocksidge | August 1, 2019

Escape from the Tower! A new escape game in Toronto, created by Escape Toronto, is one of the best escape games in the city. The game takes place in the Casa Loma, a historic castle located in Toronto. The game is set to open on August 22, and the games take place in a series of rooms and secret hiding places.

The game is called “Escape from the Tower” and it involves players solving puzzles and hidden clues to escape from the tower. The game is designed for groups of 2-6 players, and players are given 60 minutes to complete the game.

The game is set in the castle's tower, which is one of the most iconic features of Casa Loma. The game includes various challenges, such as finding hidden keys, solving cryptic clues, and deciphering codes.

Escape from the Tower is one of the most challenging escape games in the city, and it is sure to be a hit with escape game enthusiasts. The game is expected to attract both locals and tourists alike, and it is sure to become a popular attraction in Toronto.