

DOLCE

VITA

THE STUFF DREAMS ARE MADE OF:

Ferrari tours under the TUSCAN SUN!

SPRING 2009 U.S. / CAN $5.95
Display in Fashion / Lifestyle
until June 12

Dolce was there

All that Glitters Gala

WRITTEN BY MELISSA TEODORO

Truly a global experience, guests attending this illustrious gala enjoyed the lifestyle travel themes of London, Paris, and Los Angeles. A gourmet dinner ensued with raffle sponsors from Heys and Air Canada Vacations, followed by a silent auction for each jet-setter who attended. Produced by award-winning event management team, Solutions with Impact, the All That Glitters Gala, held at the Liberty Grand Entertainment Complex, raised over $500,000 to support Inflammatory Bowel Disease (IBD) research. This global adventure, tying in the three featured destinations, was hosted by Rod Black from London, Jacintha Wesselingh from Paris, and Husein Madhavji from Los Angeles. The lavish event was not complete without performances by Juno award-winning artist Jully Black, and artists Matt Dusk, Suzie McNeil and Naomi Streimer. The evening ended with the party sounds of South Beach's well-known DJ Joe Dert. www.allthatglittersgala.com

1. JetSet flight attendances 2. The Liberty Grand opened its doors to a lavish event 3. Ryan Dan (Ryan and Dan Kowarsky) 4. David Cynamon and Stacey Cynamon 5. Suzie McNeil 6. Guests sat in the lap of Hollywood luxury 7. FROM LEFT: Owen and Lynda Lawson, Russell and Mandy Fleischer 8. Gillian Goldblatt, Jordan Goldblatt, Alan Spergel and Julie Spergel 9. The flair of Paris, London and Los Angeles beckoned guests to a special night 10. Matt Dusk 11. Naomi Streimer.

2. FROM LEFT: David Feldman, president of Camrost -Felcorp; Andrew Barnicke; Rob Hannah, MGI Securities; Mike Berry.

1. FROM LEFT: Linda Kitcher, Lindsay Berry, Kelly Barnicke, Dee Dee Hannah and Angela Feldman celebrate at the Bloor St. Entertains charity dinner, hosted by Rémy Martin Cognac and Ferrari Maserati of Toronto.

Canfar Gala

WRITTEN BY MICHAEL MANNELLA

As the battle against AIDS rages on, prominent citizens from Toronto and surrounding areas gathered at the 12th annual Bloor Street Entertains gala. With a fundraising goal of $500,000, the money raised went to support the Canadian Foundation for AIDS Research (CANFAR). Guests enjoyed a stunning array of fine dining cuisine, followed by an evening of dancing and entertainment. The elegant affair brought together many individuals with a philanthropic passion for making a difference, particularly in the lives of terminally ill patients. www.canfar.ca

3. FROM LEFT: Trace Hanlon (brand manager for Rémy Martin); Fernando Zerillo (Dolce Publishing Inc.); Marco Federico; Robert Vacca (director of marketing for Ferrari Maserati of Ontario).